

The Citizen.

REGULAR REPUBLICAN NOMINATION
FOR GOVERNOR.
GEN. E. BURD GRUBB.
OF FREEHOLDER AT LARGE.
J. WESLEY VAN GIESON.

HERE AND THERE.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Darric, devoted to Monday afternoon and evening to the friends who called upon them, laden with many words of welcome and good wishes. Those who received with Mrs. Darric were Mrs. A. G. Darwin, Mrs. Norman and Miss White.

The Eavesdropper was present also (as he is not?) and this is something to be proud of. Two gentlemen, who shall be nameless, are leaving the house, and, as they stepped outside, one said to the other, "There remains one of something I found in an old book the other day about 'an eavesdropper exceeding grateful'." "Like John" in the poem, this "speaks of itself."

Mr. Hawkes, of Washington, D. C., who will be remembered by many as Miss Loney, a former resident among us, has been visiting Mrs. W. T. Howe, of Hillside avenue.

On Thursday afternoon Miss Florence Gallagher gave a very pleasant tea for her friend Miss Mary Seymour, of New York, who has been spending a short time with her.

Mrs. and Miss Seymour, as well as in town as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lamber-Shawwood.

"There is a golden law of compensation" as we are told, but like a good many other things which we acquire in the same way, we do not believe it. At all events, if there is a shadow of truth in the remark, we would like to have it proved to us, and have something or somebody begin pretty soon to compensate for all we have suffered, and are likely to suffer, at the hands of the enterprising, traitorous, who like the horse in Fred's composition, "a creature too well known to need description."

If you are the occupant of half a seat on a crowded train, your temper is not a thing to be trifled with anyway, particularly if you have an overcoat on one arm, and an umbrella between your knees, a basket of grapes, and a box containing your "silk hat" in your lap. You could not put them on the floor, you remember, because the woman next to you has her two trunks, a basket, and a handbag there already. You think to get a glimpse of that paper you picked up at Bollinger's you rushed past, and settle yourself cautiously, remembering those grapes, for its perusal. Then comes the train, and begins his delicate attentions.

The first overture is a yellow copy of "The Frenchman." You wedge it in beside the hat box without looking up. Next trip down. Park and Judge glide on you and the laughing doctor, "the Frenchman." You hold them firmly against your breast by means of a patient chin. Trip the third leaves you the temporary guardian of a red rolling pin, whose contents rattle alluringly, and which you make room for by sliding down the seat and putting your feet on one of the valves. After this you become the happy recipient of packages of caramels, lemon drops, cough candy, and are convinced that nothing but a force of angels will ever be able to extricate you.

All this you bear as a providentially appointed affliction, and look forward to the next Friday evening, when you are told, at the house of the President, Mr. Clark, and there are rumors to the effect that if the late Man is present, he will hear something to his advantage from Mr. Bailey Barrett.

The Young People's Society of Westminster had an anniversary meeting last Wednesday night, and were addressed on the subject of "Christian Organization" by Mr. William of New York.

Improvement Association.

The Improvement Association met in the rooms of the Young Men's Republican Club on Wednesday night. Free Postal Delivery was the topic discussed. It was decided to issue a call to all residents of the town to transact their postal business through the home office even at an inconvenience for a time. This concentration of business it was said would soon bring the business of the Post Office up to the requisite amount (10,000 dollars) required to bring it under the class entitled to a free delivery system.

A committee of five was appointed to confer with the Township Committee in regard to naming streets and numbering houses.

The subject of assessment of property for purposes of taxation was adopted as a topic for discussion at a future meeting, and the following resolution adopted: "Resolved, It is commonly reported that assessments in Bloomfield are laid in such a manner as to allow many persons to evade the payment of their just proportion of taxation, and that a committee of five be appointed to examine the tax duplicate, and to collect such information as may be accessible, and report to this association at an early date, and to see that the assessments of property are made according to the laws of the State, and to see that the tax duplicate is correct."

The announced exchange of pupils between the two schools of Messrs. Thomas and Mrs. A. C. was on Monday with electric lights. The system used is the Loomis in operation. It has been in operation long enough to give a fair trial as to its comparative cost with gas. It has advantages over the latter which render it preferable even at an increased cost. The absence of heat and smoke, and the convenience of the system of the Loomis system of illuminating.

The County Convention.

The Republican County Convention was held in the Roseville Hotel on Wednesday afternoon. It was an enthusiastic and harmonious gathering. Gen. E. Burd Grubb honored the Convention with his presence. He met with a warm reception. Mr. Schuyler B. Jackson, of Newark, was unanimously chosen as the party's nominee for Governor. The present incumbent, Mr. Joseph L. Munn, with drawing from the contest in favor of Mr. Jackson. The Bloomfield delegation made Mr. Thomas Oakes chairman. They were solid for Mr. Munn. In the contest for Freeholder at Large the Bloomfield delegates, realizing that the city was bent upon having the surrogate, determined on placing Mr. Thomas McGowan in nomination for the office of Freeholder. Mr. McGowan was the choice of several of the Newark delegations, and together with the delegation from his own town, they earnestly sought him to allow the use of his name, and Mr. William A. Baldwin gave expression to the desire of a large body of the voters when he placed Mr. McGowan in nomination, although his consent had not been given. The change apparent in the vote in the first regular ballot rendered it evident that Mr. McGowan would in all likelihood be the nominee. Mr. J. Wesley Van Gieson, of Montclair, having been a candidate for the place for some time, and many of the city delegates having been instructed for him, he received a large vote on the informal ballot. Not desiring to figure in a contest for the honor with Montclair, Mr. McGowan wisely directed Mr. Oakes to withdraw his name, which was done, and the vote of the delegation given to Mr. Van Gieson. The latter's nomination was then a foregone conclusion, and it was made unanimous. Mr. Van Gieson is well known in Bloomfield, where he has a host of friends who will vote for him with pleasure, and earnestly wish for his success.

While the defeat of Mr. Munn is regretted by his numerous supporters in Bloomfield and Montclair, they are by no means disheartened. The Republicans of Essex County have every reason to be proud of the ticket placed in nomination at the convention.

The Death of Inez Hewes.

During the week the Bloomfield High School has suffered a great bereavement in the sudden death of Inez Hewes. Inez entered the High School two years since, after the removal of Mr. Hewes from Montclair to Bloomfield, and at her death a member of the First Class. Her simplicity of character, her earnestness of purpose, and her daily usefulness with her associates, both pupils and teachers, at once won for her esteem and entire confidence. The place that she each Sunday occupied in the church, her devotion to her duties, her life was complete, as usual, at its close. With it, unknown to herself, she finished her life's work. She has left in school no occasion for regret, only profound sense of personal loss. The funeral services, conducted by Rev. C. C. Cook, her pastor, were held at the residence of her father Thursday morning, at 9 o'clock. The High School attended in a body.

To the Editors of The Citizen.

We desire to gratefully acknowledge the loving sympathy and helpfulness our neighbors and other friends have extended to us in our time of grief. The kind words and acts on every hand prove that they came from warm hearts. They cheer us in our sorrow and their memory will always brighten the shadows of this dark hour.

Especially do we thank the dear friends of Inez for placing beautiful flowers about her casket, for flowers seemed to be a part of her life, a special bond between earth and heaven.

May God bless you all, our friends.

MR. AND MRS. F. W. HEWES.

A Letter from Dr. C. E. Knox.

To the Editors of The Citizen: Will you permit me to express through The Citizen our deep appreciation of the kindness of our Bloomfield friends in a time of swift and overwhelming affliction. As a family we were stunned and overcome by the death of our daughter, Inez, who was only 17 years of age. It seemed as if Christian faith could bring relief only by lapse of time. But the services, both in New York and in Bloomfield, the delicate attentions of friends, the most touching decoration of the graves of the little ones gone before, the hymns of the students, and all the expressions of sympathy made the day of burial a day full of comfort. We thank God for this powerful communion of loving hearts, and ask his abundant blessing on them all.

CHARLES E. KNOX.

Fall Alarm.

The several companies comprising the Fire Department were thrown into a state of confusion by a false alarm of fire on Wednesday night. The Truck Company and Active Hose proceeded in the direction of Solo and Phoenix Hose ran in the direction of Montclair. Excelsior Hose also made a vigorous effort to discover the alleged fire. After the return of the several companies from a fruitless search an investigation was made to find the source of the alarm given. The man who rang the bell did so in the word of Dr. W. H. Van Gieson. The latter was in Mr. J. P. Sheri's drug store when word was received over the telephone from the East Orange Water Works that a fire was in progress in Bloomfield. At Mr. Sheri's request Dr. Van Gieson conveyed the news to the truck house. This engineer at the Water Works sent the message. A brush fire on the mountain side led him into the error.

Reckless Shooting.

The residents near the Centre were startled on Monday night by a number of shots fired in rapid succession from a revolver. A number of people ran to the scene of the shooting, and found Mr. James Perry, of Harrison street, doing the cowboy act with all the recklessness and bravado of a prize ranger. Officer Baldwin took the indiscriminate marksmen into custody, and Justice Hall promptly committed him to jail. Mr. Perry was intoxicated. He emptied the chambers of a 32 calibre revolver on Washington avenue, near Bull's liver, and one of the shots nearly ended in a tragedy. The bullet crashed through the window of the apartments occupied by Mr. James Robb's family in Hill's building, over the National Bank. Mr. Robb had been sitting by the window a short time previous. The bullet spent its force against the wall and the opposite side of the room. It is claimed that it was the first time that Mr. Perry has been guilty of flourishing firearms in a manner detrimental to public safety. This is an aggravated case of disorderly conduct, and the offender should be made to understand that it will not be tolerated in this town. It was not his fault that a most distressing tragedy was narrowly averted.

The announced exchange of pupils between the two schools of Messrs. Thomas and Mrs. A. C. was on Monday with electric lights. The system used is the Loomis in operation. It has been in operation long enough to give a fair trial as to its comparative cost with gas. It has advantages over the latter which render it preferable even at an increased cost. The absence of heat and smoke, and the convenience of the system of the Loomis system of illuminating.

The Primary Meeting.

To Republican Primary in Dodd's Hall, on Monday night, was an animated one. The attendance was unusually large. Two printed tickets were presented, one bearing the names of well known Republican voters of the town, and the other of equally good Republicans identified with an organization known as the Young Republicans' Club. The contest was orderly and harmonious. Mr. John F. Folsom was selected as chairman and Mr. S. Morris Hulin secretary. Ex-Assessor William Thomas McGowan requested the privilege of addressing the meeting on the subject of Assembly nominations. There had been rumors afoot connecting his name with "salutes" and "deals" and "combinations" with reference to the various offices to be filled, and he desired to have it understood that he had no connection with any of them, was not a candidate for nomination to the Assembly, and would not accept it if tendered to him by a unanimous vote. So far as he was personally concerned he wanted to see Bloomfield get the nomination which had been conceded her two years ago, and to that end would give his personal influence.

Nominations being in order, Chairman Folsom appointed as tellers Grant A. Wheeler, David W. Smith and John F. Maxwell, and Mr. James Moore placed in nomination the following ticket:

DELEGATES TO COUNTY CONVENTION:
Thomas Oakes, Frederick H. Pich,
William A. Baldwin, G. E. Richards,
G. T. Moore, H. H. Dodd,
John Keyser, C. H. Halpin,
John Lawrence, Charles M. Davis.

ASSEMBLY DELEGATES:

George W. Cook, James C. Beach,
Alan Andrews, T. Howell Johnson,
Theodore H. Ward, Theodore McGowan,
George W. Cadmus, John F. Folsom,
George Formit, Jr., R. N. Dodd.

MEMBER OF COUNTY COMMITTEE:

Walter S. Freeman.

Mr. John Zabriskie, speaking for the Young Men's organization, read off the following names as nominees:

DELEGATES TO COUNTY CONVENTION:
Spencer H. Hall, Samuel H. Baxter,
Thomas F. Cadmus, John R. Wicks,
Charles E. McDowell, William H. Dodd,
T. Winsor Langstroth, Stephen B. Harrison,
Charles O. Heckel, James L. Coyle.

SENATORIAL DELEGATES:

John H. Taylor, M. A. Deiler,
C. W. Powers, Halley M. Barrett,
James C. Yonghi, G. Lee Stout,
Samuel S. Gilbert, Charles M. Smith,
William L. Johnson, Joseph Rawson.

MEMBER OF COUNTY COMMITTEE:

Fred. M. Davis.

The ballots were then received, and 292 votes were polled. The Young Republican Club's ticket was defeated in selection of delegates by a narrow majority. Mr. Pich leading the straight ticket with 160 votes, which gradually tapered down till Dr. Richards, Mr. Langstroth and Mr. Wilde tied with 143 votes each. The former two declined in favor of the latter, thus giving the Young Republican Club one delegate, but Mr. Davis was elected in place of Mr. Freeman by a vote of 156 to 131.

Watassing.

A few of the Myrtle Avenue property owners, now that it is late, perceive a vast difference between improvements on paper and improvements in fact. The disappointed ones emphatically declare that they would not have signed for the macadamizing of the street had they fully realized the extensive cutting and filling that has since ensued. The road-bed has been raised about two feet approaching the culvert over Lawrence's Brook on the east side. This culvert has been simply demonstrated as not of sufficient capacity to carry the water that comes down the brook, on the occasion of heavy rain-fall, the surplus has heretofore found its escape over the top of the road-bed. The new embankment will prevent this in the future, and cause the formation of an immense lake which must necessarily seriously inconvenience business at Mr. Stephen Gilson's hat factory. The attention of members of the Board of Freeholders has been called to the state of affairs and it has been suggested that a new culvert of greater dimensions be built. A member of the Board of Freeholders says the difficulty of getting rid of the water is not with the culvert but is owing to the dams across the brook in the adjoining hat factories.

The ladies of the Watassing M. E. Church have presented the trustees with nearly three hundred dollars to be deposited in the credit of the church building fund.

The ladies of St. Paul's P. E. Church will open their fair in Mr. B. Thistle's home, on Prospect Street, next Thursday evening, October 29. The display of articles of every description will be unusually fine. The proceeds are to be devoted to the purchasing of new heating apparatus for the church.

Republican Campaign Committee.

At the primary meeting on Monday night the Chairman, Mr. John H. Folsom, was empowered to appoint a Campaign Committee. Mr. Folsom has made the following appointments:

Spencer H. Hall, John R. Wicks,
Charles E. McDowell, William H. Dodd,
Frederick H. Pich, G. E. Richards,
Halley M. Barrett, H. H. Dodd,
Charles W. Powers, C. H. Halpin,
Joseph Rawson, John F. Folsom,
James L. Coyle, R. N. Dodd,
Fred. H. Pich, Thomas McGowan,
Alan Andrews, John Lawrence,
George W. Cook, Henry T. Dodd,
James Perry, Thomas F. Cadmus.

It is evident that the above list fairly represents the Republican party in this town taken as a whole, and Mr. Folsom certainly cannot be accused of any partiality.

Knights of Honor.

On last Wednesday evening Brother John Baschback gave a very full and interesting lecture on the culture and care of flowers, at Excelsior Lodge Knights of Honor.

His remarks were illustrated by numerous specimens, and at the close of the lodge a vote of thanks was given to him by the members. Last week Brother Livingston of Orchard street gave a very full description of the process of printing and drying of textile fabrics.

Next week Brother Robinson is expected to demonstrate, with the aid of a small battery, the process of electro plating.

The Democratic Primary, for the election of delegates to the County and Assembly Conventions, was held in the American Home on Tuesday night. The following were elected: County, E. A. Rayner, W. E. Conner and James W. Crisp. Assembly, G. A. Mitchell, J. M. Unangst, Rimer Carter and E. F. O'Neil.

BRIEF NOTES.

The Tenth Assembly District Republican Convention was held in Dodd's Hall yesterday afternoon.

The Young Men's Republican Club meets on Monday night at headquarters, Glenwood Avenue, Spragg's Building.

The school trustees have decided to commence next week the new Berkeley school building about March 1st.

The ladies of the Reformed Church of Brookdale will hold an oyster supper next Thursday afternoon and evening.

The members of Pierson Drum and Fife Corps were tendered a supper at the Bloomfield Hotel on Thursday evening by Mr. Fred Hall, drum major of the corps.

The funeral of the late Frederick J. Knox took place last Saturday at the residence of his uncle, Hon. J. J. Knox, in New York City. The remains were brought to Bloomfield for interment. A brief service was held at the cemetery.

The exchange of pupils between Rev. H. W. Ballantine, of the First Presbyterian Church, and Rev. W. F. Jankin, of the First Presbyterian Church of Montclair, will not take place next Sunday as previously announced.

An active canvass is being made among all-way committees in the interest of the Orchard Street Depot. Considerable money has been subscribed towards the construction fund.

Contractor Callahan is putting down a flagstone sidewalk fronting Mrs. Emma L. Osborne's property at the corner of Liberty street and Oakland Avenue. Mr. Callahan has recently laid flagstone sidewalks for Mr. F. R. Stone on Fremont and Spruce streets, and Mr. Stiles and Mr. Thomas Oakes on Montgomery street, and also in front of Mr. George Wood's new building on Broad street.

The marriage of Mr. John Quinn and Miss Belle Mills is announced to take place in the church of the Sacred Heart next Wednesday morning.

The noise occasioned by the disturbance of the lumbering fowls in the luminary on the Theological Seminary premises, at Liberty street, aroused some of the students on Saturday night last, and on going out to learn the cause of it, they were surprised to find a plume of smoke coming from the chimney of the Seminary.

The students at once seized hold of the fellow and dispatched one of their number for the police officers, Baldwin and Harvey. The prisoner was taken before Justice Hall where he gave his name as Joseph Ryan. He was committed to jail.

The excitement attending the November election has occasioned the shelving of the important local issue of incorporation for the time being. His friends can rest assured that it has not been forgotten, and as soon as the smoke of the November battle has cleared away it will be taken up and the date fixed for voting on the question. The election will probably be held in the latter part of December or early in January.

The Board of Health are now struggling with the question of collecting the expenses incurred in renovating the Glenwood avenue cellars after July flood. Inspector Baxter has received instructions to levy the assessments in proportion to the valuation of the property. Mr. J. M. Unangst informed Mr. Baxter that Mrs. Christopher Unangst would protest against that method of assessment. The building occupied by Mr. Sheriff would come under that valuation, and it is claimed that the Board incurred no expense there.

The Fire Department was called out on Monday evening about five o'clock to an alarm of fire from John Hance's, on Glenwood avenue. The house is occupied by Polesanders who had put up the stove pipe in a blundering manner which caused the fire. The damage was trifling. An accident happened to the truck on returning from the place in which the company's 30 foot ladder was broken.

This town is afflicted with two or more able bodied cranks who are an intolerable nuisance when filled with liquor, which is almost incessantly. One of these degenerate specimens made himself conspicuous at the primary meeting on Monday night. A constable conveyed him from the room. The saloon-keeper who supplied that class of humanity with liquor should have his license temporarily revoked.

Eddie Willet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Willet of Harrison street, met his death in a most distressing manner on Monday afternoon. He came home from school, feeling unwell and complained of dizziness. He went out in the yard, and it was supposed he was playing around some stump. His father returned, occasioned a search to be made. The canal was dragged, and the worst fears of the family were realized by finding his body in the water. A bruise on the back of his head showed that he struck heavily against some object. His death rendered him insensible, and prevented his making any outcry. It is surmised that he was sitting on the bridge, and being suddenly seized with dizziness fell off.

Mr. Chas. L. Ward died at his residence on Bloomfield avenue, last Sunday afternoon from pneumonia after a brief illness. Mr. Ward was one of the town's oldest residents, and his blacksmithing and carriage making shops on Bloomfield avenue is one of the old landmarks. He was in his seventy-second year. Funeral services were held at his late residence on Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Chas. A. Cook officiated.

The Township Committee held a special meeting on Wednesday night for the purpose of rearranging the boundary lines of the election districts to conform with the requirements of the statute, limiting the number of votes in one district to 600. The lines of the district will be found advertised elsewhere. The consideration of the electric light contract has been deferred by the Township Committee, owing to the absence of the representative of the Edison Company at the last meeting.

On Sunday evening, October 27th, instead of the usual service in the Baptist Church, there will be a gospel song service. The enthusiasm with which such a service was conducted on October 13th, and the satisfaction it gave have led the pastor and church members to arrange for a similar service again. Mrs. Anna Hammer, County President of the W. C. T. U., and one of the most gifted speakers of the State will be present and deliver a gospel address.
